

I rely on the K-Love radio station for more than general listening entertainment, I get spiritually and emotionally involved with the material they provide. I live in a rural area that could not support the level of product that they can and do. Without a nationally based station with the testimony, sharing, and sponsorship, our community would suffer.